

State	Florida*	Indiana	Louisiana	Ohio (Cleveland)	Ohio (Statewide)	Utah*	Washington, D.C.	Wisconsin (Milwaukee)
Voucher Type	Failing School	Means Tested	Means-Tested and Failing School	Means-Preferred Voucher	Failing School	Universal	Means-Tested	Means-Tested
Student Eligibility	Attended public school graded "F" 2 of 4 years	Family Income under 150% of Reduced Lunch eligibility	Family income under 250% of poverty and attended an underperforming school in previous year	Preference to family income under 200% of poverty	Attending public school on Academic Watch or Academic Emergency for 2 of 3 years.	All students would be eligible	185% of Poverty	Family income below 175% of federal poverty line.
School Requirements		Standardized tests, may not discriminate, meet health and safety standards.		Apply standardized tests, comply with all state laws. Teachers and staff must undergo background checks.	Administer standardized tests, comply with nondiscrimination and health and safety codes. Teachers must have background checks.		Recipients must take standardized tests, nondiscrimination and health and safety laws.	Allow students to opt-out of religious programs, administer standardized tests to 4th, 8th, and 10th graders,
Caps		Year 1: 7,500 students; Year 2: 15,000 students; Year 3: No Cap		Set by annual budget	Enrollment Cap of 14,000		$11.2 million total cap	Enrollment cap of 22,500
Voucher Amount		$4,500 or 90% of Tuition	90% of state and local funding per pupil or tuition	$3,105 for low-income, $2,587 other	$4,250 for K-8, $5,000 for 9-12	$500 to $3,000, based on family income	$7,500	$6,442
Vouchers Awarded, 2010			1,823	5,678	13,213	0	1,322	20,328
Year Enacted	1999	2011	2008	1995	2005	2007	2004	1990
Year Discontinued	2006					2007

* program no longer operating